INTRODUCTION

Dear Friends,

This is the eleventh annual edition of the Private Property Congressional Vote Index. The League of Private Property Voters (LPPV) has published the Index each year since 1990.

LPPV is a coalition of more than 600 grassroots organizations that advocate the rights of property owners, including farmers, ranchers, woodlot owners, residents of rural communities, owners of recreational property, and inholders of private property within and adjacent to federal lands. A partial list of sponsors for the 1999 Index appears on the back page.

Votes for this year's index were chosen from discussions among approximately twenty leaders of the property rights movement nationwide. These votes are 1999's most important snapshots demonstrating protection of the constitutional rights of property owners against a powerful and overbearing federal government. They also show support for recreational and commercial access to federal lands, upon which many rural communities depend and all Americans share.

We encourage readers to examine the voting records of their Senators and Congressmen. Please thank those who stood up for us, and educate the rest.

• The Editors

CHAMPIONS

A Champion is a score of over 75% on the LPPV Index.

Senate - The Senate as a whole was supportive of property owners in 1999. 43 of 55 Senate Republicans scored over 75%, as did three Democrats, Senators Breaux (D-LA), Byrd (D-WV), and Inouye (D-HI). Byrd also received a special Eloquence Award for his floor speech on November 18 skewering "head-in-the-clouds" environmentalists.

House - The House was less favorable to property owners than the Senate. There were 152 representatives named Champions, including 144 Republicans and eight Democrats.

ENEMIES

An enemy of property rights is a score below 25% on the LPPV Index.

Senate - Only 29 Senators were named Enemies of property rights. This included 27 of 45 Senate Democrats, and two Republicans, Senators Jeffords (R-VT) and McCain (R-AZ). Presidential candidate McCain scored lower than all Arizona members of either party in the Senate and House, both because of missing votes and because of a mixed voting record when he showed up.

House - There were 157 House members named Enemies, including 151 Democrats and six Republicans.

A DAGGER AIMED AT THE HEART OF PRIVATE PROPERTY RIGHTS: THE CONSERVATION AND REINVESTMENT ACT (CARA) HR 701, S 25

CARA is the second major effort in recent years to take off-budget and place into land acquisition trust funds the royalties generated from Outer Continental Shelf (OCS) oil production. These trust funds would give federal and state land agencies automatic funding while avoiding traditional congressional review. It appears to be heading for the same fate as another similar attempt, the American Heritage Trust Act (AHTA), proposed in 1989.

AHTA had tremendous support from the government agencies that stood to gain guaranteed millions of dollars annually from the bill. Also anxious to feed at the trough were the "non-profit" land trusts, which could turn millions in profits each year by selling property at inflated prices to state and federal entities flush with land acquisition cash.

However, the bill was stopped by a combination of institutional objections from congressional appropriators and a growing private property rights movement. It was during the 1989 AHTA battle that we realized a private property based scorecard was necessary, and in 1990 LPPV was created.

As of February 2000, there have been no votes yet on the floor of either house of Congress on CARA. On the House side, it has been approved by one committee but faces scrutiny by another. In the Senate, it has remained bottled up so far, and has not yet moved out of its original reference committee.

This legislation is so vast and so threatening that we decided to break with the usual procedure of requiring a floor vote before "scoring" a bill. Members will be scored with a negative, anti-private property position if they have cosponsored in the House either HR 701 (CARA) or HR 798, similar legislation which has been combined with HR 701. In the Senate, cosponsors of S 25 (CARA) and S 446, similar to S 25, will be scored negatively.

Below is an op-ed that has been published in numerous outlets across the country. It describes CARA and the disgraceful pork-barrel driven sellout in which certain members are engaged. It is followed by a few special awards earned in the debate over CARA and the future of private property rights versus government power in the United States.

MONEY - THAT'S WHAT I WANT

by Chuck Cushman
Chairman, League of Private Property Voters

Reproduction permitted with acknowledgement.

*"The best things in life are free,
But you can keep 'em for the birds and bees,
Now give me money, that's what I want."*

This Motown hit made famous by the Beatles is the theme song for HR 701/ S 25, the Conservation and Reinvestment Act (CARA). Fiscal responsibility, private property rights and environmental protection are all being overridden by old fashioned pork barrel politics.

CARA creates a three billion dollar annual trust fund taken from revenue generated by offshore oil production, called outer continental shelf (OCS) royalties. OCS royalties were established many years ago, and are supposed to be used to pay for damage caused to marine life, oceans and estuaries by oil exploration and extraction activities.

However, in order to gain broader support for CARA, the fund is being raided to accommodate a laundry list of constituencies. Under CARA, all fifty states are showered with cash, and for purposes completely unrelated to environmental mitigation. These include building roads and ports, grants to Indian tribes and preserving Civil War battlefields. It seems that every special interest group in Washington has been cut in on the deal, from the National Association of Realtors to Major League Baseball, both of whom support the bill!

Veteran Congressmen Don Young (R-Alaska), Billy Tauzin (R-Louisiana) and George Miller (D-California) each abandoned long held beliefs in exchange for cold, hard cash by joining together to cosponsor this monstrosity. Young the hunter, Tauzin the property rights advocate and Miller the environmentalist created a trust fund that will take land from sportsmen, trample private property rights and ignore the environmental goals for which OCS was established.

Under the bill, Young directs $166 million annually to Alaska, a state with only 614,000 residents. That's a subsidy of $272 per person, per year. Tauzin racks up $313 million annually for Louisiana, a huge benefit for one of the poorest states in the country. And Miller tweaked the funding formula to disproportionately benefit localities within his congressional district.

Here is what happened at the recent House Resources Committee meeting, where the bill was approved.

CARA guarantees nearly one billion dollars annually for land purchases. Animal rights activists intend to use these funds to target for acquisition privately owned hunt clubs, woodlots and other areas owned or leased by sportsmen, and then eliminate all consumptive use of wildlife. This just occurred in upstate New York, where 139,000 acres of timberland had been leased out to hunters for over one hundred years. It was purchased by the state government, and hunting and snowmobiling were immediately banned.

Don Young argued against an amendment that would have assured no net loss of land permitted to be used for hunting or trapping. For Young, who is a member of the National Trappers Association, it was a tough spot to be in. He angrily refused to even allow a roll call vote on the amendment. But selling out sportsmen was worth it for a guaranteed annual fiscal pipeline from Washington, DC to Alaska.

CARA allocates to state governments up to $450 million per year which can be used to condemn land and force people off their property. Billy Tauzin led the charge against any amendments to protect private property, including an amendment to prohibit condemnation. Not one acre of land anywhere is safe from a bureaucrat's whim under this bill.

He also opposed an amendment which would have protected property owners adjacent to federal lands from losing use of their property due to regulatory "buffer zones" that are frequently declared around parks and refuges. Tauzin had actually sponsored an identical amendment during debate over the Desert Protection Act in 1994. This time around, he decided that pork barrel spending overrode principles.

Most of us have visited national parks and seen the poor condition many facilities are in, such as bathrooms, pathways, benches and employee housing. CARA dedicates over $400 million per year for additional federal land acquisition, and yet does nothing to address the severe maintenance backlog in our parks. The federal government should not be buying up more land when it cannot handle what it already owns.

Congressman Peter DeFazio (D-Oregon) pointed out that CARA will create a broad constituency with a very strong incentive to increase offshore oil drilling and the revenue that flows from it. Environmentalists strongly oppose this kind of incentive. But George Miller shut him down before he could even propose an amendment. During last minute negotiations, Miller inserted a narrowly drawn subsection in the bill to treat certain counties that have oil refineries more favorably under the bill's revenue distribution formula. Those counties include Contra Costa and Solano in California, within which is located Miller's congressional district.

After the committee markup, Congressmen Tom Udall (D-New Mexico) and Grace Napolitano (D-California) held a press conference opposing oil drilling in ANWR, the Alaska National Wildlife Refuge. Miller has long been an opponent of ANWR drilling, but was strangely absent this time. Perhaps he has lost interest in the issue, now that he has carved out his piece of the pork barrel money pie.

HR 701 is a threat to both private property rights and the environment, and is fiscally irresponsible. This gravy train is so long you can't see the caboose from the engine!

PROFILES IN COURAGE AWARDS

For voting against CARA, the three billion dollar annual land acquisition trust fund, on November 10, 1999 at the markup in the House Resources Committee:

Although Representative Peter DeFazio (D - OR) voted in favor of CARA, he was the only member of the Resources Committee to point out, at a public markup in front of a room full of people, that Ranking Member George Miller is making a deal with the devil. Miller added an amendment to CARA that will pile millions in pork barrel spending into his district, in exchange for creating tremendous incentives to increase offshore oil drilling.

PORKY PIG AWARDS

In honor of selling out their respective constituencies for cold hard cash from CARA, these three porkers will each receive an official Warner Brothers Porky Pig bean bag doll which when squeezed calls out "Th - th - th - th - that's all, folks!"

Representative Don Young (R- AK) for selling out hunters and trappers.

Representative Billy Tauzin (R- LA) for selling out land owners.

Representative George Miller (D - CA) for selling out environmentalists.

ELOQUENCE AWARD

Senator Robert Byrd (D - WV). Senator Byrd doesn't need anyone to tell him he is one of the true silver-tongued orators of our age. But we're telling him anyway. On November 18, 1999 he delivered a magnificent speech describing as only he can the lies, hypocritical behavior and cultural elitism of the environmental movement. The full text is available on pages S14781 through S14785 of the Congressional Record. Here are excerpts:

"This amendment puts into place in West Virginia the tougher environmental standards prescribed by the very MOU's that this administration's own EPA helped to negotiate. But you certainly would not know that from all of the frothing at the mouth by people who either have no idea what they are talking about, or who, for some reason, are deliberately trying to mislead the people of this country.

"These head in the clouds individuals peddle dreams of an idyllic life among old growth trees, but they seem to be ignorant of the fact that without the mines, jobs will disappear, the tables will go bare, the cupboards will be empty, schools will not have the revenue to teach the children, and towns will not have the income to provide even basics. But what do they care? They will have already thrown down their placards and their banners and gone off somewhere else.

"When the picket signs are gone, when the editorials in the big city papers are lining bird cages, the people of the small mining communities will be left. A new economic base cannot spring from the ocean foam. It cannot emanate from the brain of Jove, like Minerva, fully clothed and in armor."

US SENATE VOTES

SENATE VOTE 1 - S 544: Fiscal 1999 Supplemental Spending - Glacier Bay Fishing

March 23, 1999 - Reid, D-Nev., motion to table (kill) the Murkowski, R-Alaska, amendment that would prohibit the Interior Department from using funds to restrict commercial fishing or other marine activities in Glacier Bay National Park until Alaska's legal claim to ownership of affected areas is resolved. The motion would negatively impact a significant part of Alaska's fishing business, and with no demonstrated environmental benefit, hurting small businesses and rural communities. Motion was defeated 40-59: R 6-48; D 34-11; I 0-0. LPPV position: OPPOSE.

SENATE VOTE 2 - HR 2466: Fiscal 2000 Interior Appropriations - Mining Waste Disposal

July 27, 1999 - Stevens, R-Alaska, motion to table (kill) the Murray, D-Wash., amendment that would remove bill language prohibiting implementation of a 1997 Interior Department ruling limiting mining waste disposal to a single, five-acre site for each mining operation. Unlike the House, the Senate chose not to place an arbitrary acreage limitation on mining waste regardless of mine size. The motion allows existing environmental regulation within mining laws to work their course, giving certainty to property owners with patented land. Motion passed 55-41: R 44-9; D 10-32; I 1-0. LPPV position: SUPPORT.

SENATE VOTE 3 - HR 2466: Fiscal 2000 Interior Appropriations - Resource Management Plans

Sept. 9, 1999 - Robb, D-Va., amendment to strike language in the bill that would give discretion to the secretaries of Agriculture and Interior as to whether new information concerning wildlife should be collected before revising resource management plans for national forests and Bureau of Land Management properties. The amendment would tie the hands of the Agriculture and Interior Secretaries by eliminating certain management flexibility when preparing resource management plans. It would have negatively effected private property inholders within national forests and other federal lands. Rejected 45-52: R 4-47; D 41-4; I 0-1. LPPV position: OPPOSE.

SENATE VOTE 4 - HR 2466: Fiscal 2000 Interior Appropriations - Trapping

Sept. 9, 1999 - Stevens, R-Alaska, motion to table (kill) the Torricelli, D-N.J., amendment that would prevent the use of jawed leghold traps or neck snares in any part of the National Wildlife Refuge System, except for research, subsistence, conservation or facilities protection purposes. The Senate differed from the House by choosing common sense over emotional silliness, allowing continued use of leghold traps within National Wildlife Refuges. The traps are a non-polluting low tech method of predator control used by the National Audubon Society and private land owners. Motion agreed to 64-32: R 47-4; D 17-27; I 0-1. LPPV position: SUPPORT.

SENATE VOTE 5 - HR 2466: Fiscal 2000 Interior Appropriations - Grazing Permits

Sept. 9, 1999 - Domenici, R-N.M., motion to table (kill) the Durbin, D-Ill., amendment to replace bill language that would require the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) to renew expiring grazing permits under the same terms and conditions as the old permit, with provisions to allow the BLM to modify conditions of grazing permits when they are up for renewal. The motion would assure renewal of grazing permits for private ranches leasing federal lands, while allowing for modification of permits. Motion agreed to 58-37: R 46-4; D 11-33; I 1-0. LPPV position: SUPPORT.

SENATE VOTE 6 - HR 2466: Fiscal 2000 Interior Appropriations - Forest Service Programs

Sept. 14, 1999 - Craig, R-Idaho, motion to table (kill) the Bryan, D-Nev., amendment that would reduce funding for timber sales management and logging road construction by the Forest Service, redirecting the funds for road maintenance, wildlife and fisheries habitat management and threatened and endangered species habitat management. The motion would maintain funds for timber sale management, which includes roads used for recreational access to federal lands and access to private property inholdings. Motion agreed to 54-43: R 45-7; D 8-36; I 1-0. LPPV position: SUPPORT.

SENATE VOTE 7 - HR 2466: Fiscal 2000 Interior Appropriations - Oil Royalty Valuation System

Sept. 23, 1999 - Hutchison, R-Texas, amendment that would prevent the Minerals Management Service from implementing a proposed new oil royalty valuation system for drilling on federal lands until Sept. 30, 2000. The amendment temporarily prevents unreasonable new regulations from taking effect until they can be contested by leaseholders. Adopted 51-47: R 45-7; D 5-40; I 1-0. LPPV position: SUPPORT.

SENATE VOTE 8 - HJRES 82: Fiscal 2000 Continuing Appropriations - Coal Mining Practices

Nov. 18, 1999 - Byrd, D-W.Va., amendment that would impose a two-year moratorium on an Oct. 20, 1999, federal court ruling challenging the legality of certain coal mining practices. During the moratorium, mountain mining would proceed under a memorandum of understanding between the Environmental Protection Agency, Interior Department and U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. The amendment temporarily overrides a court ruling which overturned an EPA brokered Memorandum of Understanding allowing coal mining under strict environmental controls. See Senator Byrd's "Eloquence Award" in introductory section. Adopted 56-33: R 39-8; D 17-25; I 0-0. LPPV position: SUPPORT.

Cosponsorship of CARA, S 25 and S 446, the Conservation and Reinvestment Act.

CARA is an unprecedented land grab. It is a $3 billion annual land acquisition "pork barrel" trust fund. See separate section (page 3) titled CARA: A DAGGER AIMED AT THE HEART OF PRIVATE PROPERTY RIGHTS. LPPV position: OPPOSE.

UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The votes listed below show how each Representative supported (+) or opposed (-) the League of Private Property Voters position. A description of each vote is listed below.

You will gain the greatest benefit by first looking up your Representative to see what his or her private property score was on the scorecard. Then read each vote description. The League's private property position listed near the top of the scorecard shows how we believe your Representative should have voted on each issue. Check to see whether your Representative supported (+) or opposed (-) the League's private property position.

US HOUSE VOTES

HOUSE VOTE 1 - HR 350: Federal Mandates on the Private Sector - Modify Point of Order

Feb. 10, 1999 - Boehlert, R-N.Y., amendment to modify the effect of the new point of order established by the bill. Under the amendment, the House would not be required to vote on continuing consideration of the legislation, but would have an additional 20 minutes to debate the private sector mandates of the legislation. The amendment would gut the objective of unfunded mandate legislation, which is to force Congress to realize and have to vote on any bill's impact on property owners and other private sector entities. Amendment defeated 210-216: R 34-187; D 175-29; I 1-0. LPPV position: OPPOSE.

HOUSE VOTE 2 - HR 883: Land Sovereignty - Biosphere Reserves

May 20, 1999 - Udall, D-Colo., amendment to exempt all Biosphere Reserve projects in Colorado from the bill's provisions. The amendment weakens protections for property owners in all of Colorado against United Nations efforts to override national sovereignty and establish control over private property. Rejected 191-231: R 7-209; D 183-22; I 1-0. LPPV position: OPPOSE.

HOUSE VOTE 3 - HR 1906: Agricultural Appropriations - Wild Predator Control

June 8, 1999 - DeFazio, D-Ore., amendment to reduce funding for the National Wildlife Service's program for lethal predator control by $7 million. The program funds efforts to control the population of wild animals that prey on livestock and birds that flock near airports. The amendment proposes to cut back common sense controls on wild animals that threaten property owners living and working adjacent to federal lands. Amendment defeated 193-230: R 63-153; D 129-77; I 1-0. LPPV position: OPPOSE.

HOUSE VOTE 4 - HR 2466: Fiscal 2000 Interior Appropriations - Land Acquisition

July 13, 1999 - McGovern, D-Mass., amendment to appropriate $30 million for the state-side matching grant program of the Land and Water Conservation Fund. The amendment would offset the increase in funding by reducing the appropriations for Energy Department fossil energy research and development by $29 million and for the Bureau of Land Management transportation facilities and management by $1 million. A disaster both coming and going! The amendment adds to already excessive land acquisition budgets that permit adverse condemnation of private property. It also takes money away from scarce Bureau of Land Management operating funds. Amendment passed 213-202: R 55-157; D 157-45; I 1-0. LPPV position: OPPOSE.

HOUSE VOTE 5 - HR 2466: Fiscal 2000 Interior Appropriations - Mining Waste

July 14, 1999 - Rahall, D-W.Va., amendment to prohibit the processing of applications for mining plans or operations that would use more than five acres to dispose of mining waste. The amendment would effectively shut down nearly all new mining proposals regardless of their environmental mitigation efforts by establishing an arbitrary acreage limit for waste, regardless of the size of the mine. This will severely impact patented private lands. Amendment approved 273-151: R 78-143; D 194-8; I 1-0. LPPV position: OPPOSE.

HOUSE VOTE 6 - HR 2466: Fiscal 2000 Interior Appropriations - Trapping

July 14, 1999 - Farr, D-Calif., amendment to prohibit the use of funds in the bill to permit the use of jawed leghold traps or neck snares in the National Wildlife Refuge System. The amendment provides an exception for the use of these traps and snares for use in research, conservation, or facilities protection. A vote for emotional silliness over common sense! Leghold traps sound nasty, but in many cases are safer for the environment than other predator control methods such as poison. They are used by the Audubon Society and private landowners, and should remain available as an option. Amendment approved 259-166: R 89-131; D 169-35; I 1-0. LPPV position: OPPOSE.

HOUSE VOTE 7 - HR 2466: Fiscal 2000 Interior Appropriations - Reduce Timber Management

July 14, 1999 - Wu, D-Ore., amendment to earmark $196.9 million of National Forest System funding for timber sales management, $120.5 million for wildlife and fisheries habitat management, and $40.2 million for watershed improvements. Without the amendment, the bill would allocate $220 million for timber sales management, $103.5 million for wildlife and fisheries habitat management, and $34 million for watershed improvements. The amendment cuts back funds to manage timber sales, which are an important part of many rural communities local tax and economic base and a method of wildfire control. Amendment rejected 174-250: R 25-195; D 148-55; I 1-0. LPPV position: OPPOSE.

HOUSE VOTE 8 - HR 2605: Fiscal 2000 Energy and Water Appropriations - Wetlands Permits

July 27, 1999 - Visclosky, D-Ind., amendment to remove provisions that would require the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers to undertake studies and issue a report to Congress before it revises its permit program for developing wetlands areas of less than three acres. The amendment also would remove provisions that would authorize the federal appeal of certain wetlands designations prior to completion of the Corps permit process. The amendment seeks to cut back Congress's oversight authority on wetlands laws, and weaken legal protections for property owners seeking wetlands permits. Amendment rejected 183-245: R 6-214; D 176-31; I 1-0. LPPV position: OPPOSE.

HOUSE VOTE 9 - HR 2670: Fiscal 2000 Commerce-Justice-State Appropriations - Defund World Heritage Sites

Aug. 5, 1999 - Hayworth, R-Ariz., amendment to prohibit any funds in the bill from being used to add any natural site or cultural monument currently recognized as a World Heritage Site by the United Nations' World Heritage Committee to the committee's list of endangered world heritage sites. The amendment prohibits American tax money from being used to support the United Nations ongoing efforts to establish land use control over private property in the United States. Adopted 217-209: R 199-20; D 18-188; I 0-1. LPPV position: SUPPORT.

HOUSE VOTE 10 - HR 2389: Timber Revenues for Rural Communities - Passage

Nov. 3, 1999 - Passage of the bill (sponsored by Deal, R-Ga. and Boyd, D-Fl.) to guarantee that counties adjacent to National Forest Service lands will receive a percentage of the agency's timber sales revenues equal to their average payment of the highest three years since 1985. The measure would create a five-year safety net for communities whose forest payments have been reduced in recent years. The measure would require counties receiving more than $100,000 in payments to use 20 percent of the payments for community-based projects and 80 percent for roads and schools. Excellent legislation that helps rural communities with the economic impacts of declining timber sales due to zealous, punitive enforcement of the Endangered Species Act. Passed 274-153: R 187-29; D 87-123; I 0-1. LPPV position: SUPPORT.

Cosponsorship of CARA, HR 701 and HR 798, the Conservation and Reinvestment Act.

See separate section (page 3) titled CARA: A DAGGER AIMED AT THE HEART OF PRIVATE PROPERTY RIGHTS. LPPV position: OPPOSE.
